A graduate of Georgetown, Dr. DeGioia served as a senior administrator and as a faculty member in the Department of Philosophy before becoming president on July 1, 2001. He continues to teach an Ignatius Seminar each fall, which is part of a program offering first-year students the opportunity to encounter unique courses of study inspired by the Jesuit educational theme of cura personalis ("care for the whole person").

UNIVERSITY LEADERSHIP

As President, Dr. DeGioia is dedicated to deepening Georgetown's tradition of academic excellence, its commitment to its Catholic and Jesuit identity, its engagement with the Washington, D.C. community, and its global mission. Under his leadership, Georgetown has become a leader in shaping the future landscape of higher education and has recently completed a $1.5 billion campaign dedicated to enhancing the lifelong value of a Georgetown education.

Dr. DeGioia is deeply engaged in addressing broader issues in education. He currently serves as Immediate Past Chair of the Board of Directors of the American Council on Education (ACE), and Chair of the Board of Directors of the Forum for the Future of Higher Education; he also serves as a member of the Board of Directors of the Carnegie Corporation of New York, and the National Association of Independent Schools. Dr. DeGioia earned a bachelor's degree in English from Georgetown University in 1979 and a Ph.D. in Philosophy from the University in 1995.

Prior to his appointment as president in 2001, Dr. DeGioia held a variety of senior administrative positions at Georgetown, including Senior Vice President and Dean of Student Affairs.

He has been presented with a Lifetime Achievement Award for Excellence in Academia by the Sons of Italy, and the "Catholic in the Public Square Award" by Commonweal (2012). LEE REED DIR. OF INTERCOLLEGIATE ATHLETICS FRANCIS X. RIENZO CHAIR

Lee Reed came to Georgetown University in April of 2010 as the 17th director of intercollegiate athletics (Francis X. Rienzo chair), bringing with him an outstanding record of service in higher education. His commitment to people is an integral part of his core philosophy and is reflected in his oft-mentioned adage, "Georgetown athletics is STUDENT-ATHLETE centered, COACH driven, and ADMINISTRATOR assisted." This principle guides all strategic decision making within the department of athletics.

Reed oversees one of the largest broad-based intercollegiate athletics programs in the nation with 29 varsity programs and 700 student-athletes, 12 percent of the undergraduate population at Georgetown. Under his leadership the Hoyas have remained prominent on the national landscape while maintaining their commitment to the values that define the oldest Catholic and Jesuit University in the country.

Throughout Reed's tenure, Georgetown athletics has continued to be a national and conference powerhouse, claiming 30 conference tournament and regular season championships. Four head coaches have received national coaches of the year honors under Reed and six team national championships have been earned, including a NCAA women's cross country title in 2011, a men's lightweight rowing championship in 2016, and four ICSA national sailing titles (2010, 2012, 2014, 2016).

Reed continues to earn respect within his profession and among his peers. He served as the president of the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (NACDA) for the 2018-19 academic year becoming the first former NACDA intern to be elected president. He was also recognized as one of 28 recipients of NACDA's Under Armour Athletics Director of the Year Award in 2017.

Reed serves as president of the John McLendon Foundation Board and is chair of the BIG EAST Men's Basketball Issues Working Group. He is also a mentor in the NCAA Pathways program, on the advisory board for the LGBTQ Center at Georgetown and is a frequent guest speaker at the NCAA, NACDA and other national programs.

Reed was instrumental in the smooth transition to the new BIG EAST Conference in 2013, which welcomed three new institutions. In 2015, he negotiated a lucrative 10-year multi-media rights deal with FOX Sports on behalf of Georgetown Athletics, joining an exclusive list of institutions to partner with FOX Sports in this national trend. Additionally, in 2016, he oversaw the opening of the first varsity athletics facility on the Hilltop since 1951. The Thompson Center is a 144,000-square-foot state-of-the-art training facility that has elevated the infrastructure available to Georgetown's student-athletes.

In the classroom, Georgetown athletics teams have been equally competitive as they continue to excel, posting cumulative GPAs consistently over 3.2, the highest mark since that figure has been tracked. In the past year, 13 teams were recognized by the NCAA for high Academic Progress Rate scores, 96 percent of student-athletes graduated and more than 300 student-athletes were selected to the BIG EAST Academic Honor Roll.

Under Reed's guidance, the athletics department has established the Cooper Athletics Leadership Program as well as bringing on a full time counselor exclusively for student-athletes as Georgetown strives to support the whole person.

Before coming to the Hilltop, Reed served as the director of athletics at Cleveland State University for eight years. He was also at Eastern Michigan University for seven seasons prior to his return to CSU. He received his master in sports administration from the University of New Mexico, where he also served as an assistant men's basketball coach.

A former basketball standout at Cleveland State, he joined the Viking athletics department in the summer of 2002. During his time at CSU, the athletics program moved into the upper ranks of the Horizon League and was recognized as one of the top programs in the state of Ohio. While there, he served as president of the NCAA I-AAA Athletic Director's Association, served on the NCAA Management Council and the NCAA Men's Basketball Academic Enhancement Group.

In 2005, Reed was recognized as one of the 50 Most Powerful African-Americans in Sports by Black Enterprise magazine. He began his career in athletics administration as a NACDA intern from February 1994 to April 1995.

Reed and his wife, Katafa, and their children reside in Great Falls, Virginia.

HEAD COACH PATRICK EWING

PATRICK EWING

HEAD COACH | THIRD SEASON | 34-29 OVERALL
GEORGETOWN C'85

On April 3, 2017 Georgetown University named Patrick Ewing (C'85) its new head men's basketball coach. Ewing came back to Georgetown after serving for 15 years as an assistant coach in the NBA. He served as an assistant coach for the Washington Wizards (2002-03), Houston Rockets (2003-06) and Orlando Magic (2007-12) and as the associate head coach for the Charlotte Hornets (2013-17).

In just two seasons on the Hilltop, the Hoyas have already hit some early milestones. The 2018-19 season saw Georgetown win a major BIG EAST award in the league's Freshman of the Year honor as well as a trio of athletes named to the All-Freshman Team, just the second time in conference history three honorees have come from the same institution. The 2018-19 campaign saw a return to the postseason for the first time since the 2014-15 season as the Hoyas earned a berth to the 2019 National Invitation Tournament.

Ewing is recognized as the greatest men's basketball player to ever don the Blue & Gray. He was selected as one of the top 50 players in the history of the National Basketball Association (NBA) and was elected to the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame in 2008.

Ewing was a three-time consensus First Team All-American (1983, 1984, 1985) on the Hilltop, leading the Hoyas to three NCAA Championship Game appearances and the 1984 National Championship title.

He was named Most Outstanding Player of the 1984 NCAA Championships. His play propelled Georgetown into one of the most respected basketball programs in the country.

During his illustrious career, Ewing had the opportunity to play for, and coach, alongside some of the great coaches in basketball, including Pat Riley (New York Knicks), Jeff Van Gundy (Knicks, Houston Rockets), Stan Van Gundy (Orlando Magic), Tom Thibodeau (Chicago Bulls, Minnesota Timberwolves) and Steve Clifford (Charlotte).

He was the first pick in the 1985 NBA Draft and went on to earn NBA Rookie of the Year honors in 1986 with the New York Knicks after averaging 20.0 points and 9.0 rebounds per game. Ewing scored 24,815 points during his 17-year NBA career to go along with 11,607 rebounds. Ewing spent 15 years with the Knicks and made 10-consecutive NBA All-Star appearances. Ewing averaged 21.0 points, 9.8 rebounds and 2.45 blocks in 1,183 career games and was a member of the NBA's 50th Anniversary Team. He remains the New York Knicks' all-time leader in points, rebounds, blocked shots, steals and field goals made.

He still stands second all-time in scoring at Georgetown, averaging 15.3 points in 143 games. He is one of only four players in program history to score at least 2,000 points (2,184). Ewing is the all-time leader in total rebounds (1,316), blocked shots (493) and games played (143).

LOUIS ORR ASSISTANT COACH | THIRD SEASON SYRACUSE '80

Louis Orr joined the Georgetown men's basketball staff as an assistant coach in June 2017.

Orr has been a part of Head Coach Patrick Ewing's staff since his inaugural season and helped the program hit significant early milestones. The 2018-19 season saw Georgetown win a major BIG EAST award in the league's Freshman of the Year honor as well as a trio of athletes named to the All-Freshman Team, just the second time in conference history three honorees have come from the same team. The 2018-19 season saw a return to the postseason for the first time since the 2014-15 campaign as the Hoyas earned a berth to the 2019 National Invitation Tournament.

Orr came to Georgetown with familiarity to the BIG EAST Conference as both a coach and a player. A 1980 Syracuse graduate, Orr had stints as an assistant coach at Xavier (1991-94), Providence College (1994-96) and Syracuse (1996-2000) and was the head coach at Seton Hall from 2001-06. Most recently, Orr was an assistant coach with the Xinjiang Flying Tigers of the Chinese Basketball Association. His team captured the regular season title and first CBA championship in the 2016-17 campaign.

Previously, Orr served as the head coach at Bowling Green State University from 2007-14. He led the Falcons to a pair of postseason appearances and was named the Mid-American Conference Coach of the Year after guiding BGSU to a 19-14 record and an appearance in the National Invitation Tournament (NIT) in his second season.

Prior to his arrival at Bowling Green, Orr was the head coach at Seton Hall from 2001-06, where he compiled an 80-69 record. He was named the BIG EAST Conference's Coach of the Year in 2003, becoming the first person in league history to receive league honors as both a player and a coach. Orr, the first former BIG EAST player to coach at a conference institution, guided the Pirates to three postseason appearances, twice going to the NCAA Tournament (2004 and 2006) and once to the NIT (2003), in five seasons.

Orr also served as the head coach at Siena College in 2000-01, guiding the Saints to a 20-11 record and a share of the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference regular season title.

Orr played in the NBA for eight years, including six seasons with the New York Knicks. He was Patrick Ewing's teammate at the Knicks for Ewing's first three years in the NBA.

ROBERT KIRBY ASSISTANT COACH | THIRD SEASON PAN AMERICAN '83

Robert Kirby, in his 35th year as an assistant coach at the NCAA Division I level, returned to Georgetown for his second stint as an assistant coach prior to the 2017-18 season after spending the previous year at LSU. He coached on the Hilltop from 2010-12.

Kirby has been a part of Head Coach Patrick Ewing's staff since his inaugural season and helped the program hit significant early milestones. The 2018-19 season saw Georgetown win a major BIG EAST award in the league's Freshman of the Year honor as well as a trio of athletes named to the All-Freshman Team, just the second time in conference history three honorees have come from the same team. The 2018-19 season saw a return to the postseason for the first time since the 2014-15 campaign as the Hoyas earned a berth to the 2019 National Invitation Tournament.

Recognized as one of the top assistant coaches in Division I basketball, Kirby previously had coaching stints at LSU (2012-13, 2016-17), Memphis (2013-15), Georgetown, Mississippi State (1998-2010; 1989-93), Houston (1993-98), Southeastern Louisiana (1988-89) and UALR (1985-88). He has been involved in more than 580 NCAA Division I victories and 18 postseason squads.

Kirby, a Memphis native, has been recognized by Rivals.com as one of the nation's top recruiters and HoopScoop as one of the country's top assistant coaches. He is a recipient of the NABC Distinguished Years of Service Award. At Georgetown from 2010-12, Kirby was part of a team that advanced to the NCAA Tournament in both seasons, helping to recruit consecutive classes ranked in the top 15 nationally, including Otto Porter Jr., who was a First Team All-American and National Player of the Year candidate.

The 2018-19 season saw Georgetown win a major BIG EAST award in the league's Freshman of the Year honor as well as a trio of athletes named to the All-Freshman Team, just the second time in conference history three honorees have come from the same team. The 2018-19 season saw a return to the postseason for the first time since the 2014-15 campaign as the Hoyas earned a berth to the 2019 National Invitation Tournament.

Waheed came to the Hilltop after spending the 2015-16 season as an assistant coach at Hofstra University. The Pride finished the 2015-16 season with a 24-10 record and an appearance in the National Invitation Tournament (NIT).

In his career as an assistant coach, Waheed has been part of five postseason teams, including two squads that advanced to the NCAA Tournament. Prior to spending the 2014-15 season with the Thunder, Waheed worked at Boston College from 2010 to 2014.

Waheed spent 11 years as an assistant to Joe Mihalich at Niagara University, where the Purple Eagles averaged nearly 19 wins per season and earned four postseason tournament berths. During his time at Niagara, the Purple Eagles posted a 206-135 record, earned an NCAA Tournament win, a pair of NCAA Tournament berths, two Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference (MAAC) Championships, two trips to the NIT and two MAAC regular season titles. He was a part of four 20-win seasons in Buffalo.

A skilled recruiter and strong developer of talent, Waheed helped recruit and develop a multitude of players that have gone on to the professional ranks, most recently Olivier Hanlan (Utah Jazz) and Reggie Jackson (Oklahoma City Thunder).

Waheed graduated from Niagara in 1999 with a degree in communications. He earned his master's degree in school counseling from Niagara in 2007. Waheed was a standout at Gonzaga College High School, helping the team reach a national rank as high as No. 6 in the country when he was a junior.

2019-20 MEDIA POLICIES

HOYAS ON THE AIR

Entering his 46th season as the “Voice of the Hoyas,” Rich Chvotkin will once again call the games this season. In October 2018, the Georgetown men’s basketball program and Radio One Inc., a division of Urban One Inc., announced that all games will be featured on The Team 980 WTEM as part of a three-year deal.

Radio One was the original flagship home of the Hoyas when Georgetown Basketball first took to the airwaves in the early 1970s.

The Team 980 features 13 hours of live and local sports talk Monday through Friday. Fans can hear all of the dynamic programming on WTEM 980 AM as well as globally to a worldwide audience on The Team 980 app. In addition to daily sports talk, The Team 980 is proudly the longtime home of the Washington Redskins Radio Network, the College Football Playoff, the NCAA Tournament, the NBA Finals and the World Series.

PRESS CREDENTIALS

Georgetown home games are played at Capital One Arena (Washington, D.C.). All game credentials should be requested through the online system that is being rolled out during the 2019-20 season. Please contact Diana Pulupa for more information. Credentials are only issued to accredited members of the working media and seating at press row is assigned on a priority basis. Assigned credentials can be picked up at Capital One Arena’s Press Gate entrance, located on 6th St. NW between F and G Streets.

PHOTO CREDENTIALS

Photo passes are available for accredited, working photographers only and will be issued at the discretion of the Athletics Communications staff. Photographers are limited to working the designated areas and any special needs (remotes, lighting, etc.) must be approved prior to installation. Photographers must be utilizing appropriate equipment (ie no cell phones) and tripods are not allowed to be set up anywhere near the court. Photography in the stands is only allowed in accordance to each venue’s policies and is not credentialed or overseen by the Department of Athletics.

RADIO

Space on press row will be provided to the official station of each visiting team and will be limited to three seats. Since there can only be one official station for any given team, seating for additional radio stations must be arranged in advance. Visiting radio stations should make a request for its needs (POTS, phone line, ethernet, etc.) at least one week prior to game time. Starting with the 2019-20 season, Capital One Arena will no longer provide ISDN lines.

POSTGAME

Approximately 10 minutes after the game, head coaches will begin addressing the press. Georgetown players will also be available in the interview room after the game. Any requests for specific players should be addressed at the end of the game.
